Dear Friends:

In just about six weeks, we are going to host our 7th Annual Singles' Conference. Over these years, this conference has proven to be a real help to singles of all ages - and I know that this year will be no exception. Please take a moment to look over the enclosed brochure and think about who you could influence to be here with you in August.

Unfortunately, one person who cannot be here with us is our keynote speaker! Sam Horn has recently had to cancel all speaking engagements this summer in order to attend to the health needs of his wife, Beth. So I hope that you will join us in praying for the special needs in the Horn family.

Since Sam will not be here, I have invited a former member of our pastoral staff to be our speaker. Dave Wetterlund is a "rising star" in our circles, speaking regularly at conferences, camps and banquets all around the country. He is energetic and solidly biblical in his preaching. Be assured that you and your friends will be blessed by his ministry here at Bethel that weekend. He is excited about our theme and for this speaking opportunity.

So I urge you to "get on the horn" (no pun intended - leave Sam alone!) and help us spread the word about the Singles' Conference. If you have any questions about the conference, please contact Pastor Josh Plonk here at Bethel and he can answer you specifically. I hope that I have the pleasure of personally meeting you as well in August. We're praying that this year's conference will be unusually blessed by God in the lives of many single adults.

Yours and His,

Pastor Bradley Smith
